

What we offer

Our Food and Drink Maintenance Engineer qualification, as part of the framework offers a multi-occupational structure including both multi-skilled or mechanical pathways.

FDQ Level 3 Diploma in Food and Drink Engineering Maintenance (Wales)

This qualification is designed to develop the skills and knowledge of workers in the food and drink engineering and manufacturing sector.

Why choose us

Our Food and Drink Maintenance Engineer qualifications and apprenticeship standards are developed by industry experts. They are also designed to train and upskill each and every learner.

Qualification purpose

This qualification is designed to develop the skills and knowledge of workers in the food and drink engineering and manufacturing sector. The qualification includes a wide range of units providing learners with the opportunity to demonstrate skills and knowledge required to work in highly automated and technical environment.

Our customers say

“FDQ have been nothing short of first class in their support, advice and always there for the learner and us as a provider, ensuring that we deliver first class qualifications that enable the learner to progress within their chosen career”

Food & Drink Engineering Maintenance (Wales)

Scan to find out more

Completion of the framework could lead to...

- Food safety and quality
- Team leading/management
- Engineering procurement
- Continuous improvement

Our message

Clear

Our priority is to ensure there are no surprises whilst working with FDQ.

Supportive & Flexible

We want your learners to succeed. That's why we work around your shift patterns to ensure day by day support and answer your enquiries within the hour.

Professional & friendly

We pride ourselves on working closely with our customers. From the moment you become a centre with FDQ, our door is always open for any questions you need answering. Just give us a call.

Want to start working with FDQ?

Simply fill in and submit centre & qualification approval form found on our website www.fdq.org.uk.

Once you are approved

Once you are approved, you can begin delivering and registering learners on our FDQAwards system. You will receive a confirmation letter and welcome email from a member of our Operations Team.

Contact us

General enquiries

FDQ@fdq.org.uk

Office number

0113 859 1266

